MV REEF ENDEAVOUR – FIJI ISLANDS

A TO Z HELPFUL INFORMATION

The following information is a guide only and is subject to change. Kindly note that it is your responsibility to ensure you have all the correct documents including visa, health and passport requirements. Please check with your local authorities before you depart. For information & details of passenger responsibilities please refer to the passenger cruise contract.

ACCOMMODATION (Reef Endeavour) - 64 suites, staterooms and cabins. Suites and Staterooms have two windows per room and open onto the outside deck. Cabins open to an inside passageway and have port holes. Each room has a private bathroom ensuite, on/off air-conditioning, hair dryers, 240 volt power, international shaver point, soaps, shampoo and towels; serviced daily. Each Cabin & Stateroom is approximately 14sq meters and Suites are approximately 28sq meters.

AIR CONDITIONING - Each Cabin/Stateroom contains at least one air-conditioning vent. A simple on/off switch & temperature gauge is located under the main light switch. If you wish to leave your cabin door open, please switch off the air-conditioning. There is a fresh air vent located on the bottom of Stateroom & Tabua Suite doors which can be opened if you choose.

BAGGAGE - Baggage is limited to what you can stow in your cabins, so you would be advised not to over pack. All bags must be clearly labeled with your name and cabin number. Bags have to be handled by crew and we would appreciate a weight limit of 20kg

BARS – Normal closing time for bar services is 12 midnight. Our licensing laws do not permit alcohol to be brought onboard by passengers.

BIRTHDAYS & SPECIAL OCCASIONS - You may want to order a cake, champagne or make some other celebratory arrangement for that special occasion. Please give two weeks' notice before sailing.

BOARDING – The vessel departs from Port Denarau Marina unless otherwise stated. Please present your ticket with photo identification at the Captain Cook Cruises counter in the Port Terminal. The crew will load your baggage. Check-in is between 9am – 12noon for a 1pm boarding on Tuesday and 12noon boarding on Saturday.

BRIDGE - Should you wish to visit the Bridge please make a request to the Hospitality Manager.

CASH FREE: - For your convenience we operate a cashless system. You may use your Cruise Account for onboard drinks and some optional shore excursions. Small denomination local currency is required for village markets, games and gratuities. Your Cruise Account must be settled at the Bar prior to disembarkation. Limited foreign currency, cash or credit card (American Express, Visa, MasterCard & Diners) will be accepted for payment of your account, however we advise personal cheques cannot be accepted.

CHILD MINDING – All children must be under the supervision of an adult at all times to the satisfaction of the ship's Master and must be able to swim unaided or be prepared to wear a flotation device on all tender transfers. Children 5-9 must be under the supervision of a responsible adult at all times. Group child minding is provided on board for children 5-9 years inclusive at the following times 9.00am-12noon, 2.00pm -5.00pm, 6.30pm-9pm.

CHILD MINDING cont. – Nanny hire is compulsory for children under 5 years (prices on application) per 10 hour day. Advance bookings are ESSENTIAL and must be made at the time of booking your cruise. Children under 5 years are not recommended for this style of cruise and carried at Captain Cook Cruises' absolute discretion (existing bedding). If accepted, they will be required to provide their own flotation device suitable for their age and weight and wear this device on all tender transfers. Child rate applies to children 5 – 17 years sharing with adults.

COFFEE & TEA – 24hr Complimentary coffee & tea are available in the Yasawa Lounge and the Reef Room.

DAY TOURS - Captain Cook Cruises offers a choice of tours for 7-Night passengers or those disembarking and wishing to utilise their time on a Tuesdays and Saturdays (whilst the ship is docked at Port Denarau Marina). Please enquire at the Purser's Bureau.

DIETARY NEEDS - Passengers requiring special meals should advise the Company in writing at least two weeks prior to sailing and discuss with the purser on boarding. Most special diets can be catered for but we do need to be able to prepare for you in some cases.

DINING – Dining is a vital ingredient in your Fijian cruise. Whether it is an alfresco luncheon, gourmet barbecue or table d'hote dinner, our food is prepared on board from fresh local and imported produce and our on-board entertainment adds a special flavour to the mix. Breakfast 7.30am – 9.00am. Lunch 12noon or 12.30pm. Dinner reservations from 7pm to 8pm or as otherwise advised. There is one sitting for meals. Table seating is assigned for most evening Dinners whilst Breakfast and Lunch are free seating.

DISEMBARKATION – On the final day of your cruises please leave your luggage outside your cabin prior to breakfast (it will be landed ashore by the ship's crew) and return your key to the Purser's Bureau. All cabin accounts must be settled at the Purser's Bureau between 7.00am and 8.00am. The Ship's crew will farewell you around the swimming pool at 8.45am before disembarkation at 9am.

DIVING - Dive opportunities are at an additional cost for both certified and 'first time' divers. All certified divers must present an internationally recognized Open Water Dive Certificate to the on-board dive instructor to participate in certified dives. Introductory (or beginner) divers are not required to have a certification card however they will need to complete a medical and waiver form. To avoid disappointment, passengers with any health issues or taking any medication, should visit their doctor to obtain a fitness to dive certificate prior to embarkation (not available in Fiji). Divers should register your interest with Reservations when booking your cruise. Up to one intro or certified dive per day can be pre-booked. Additional dives may be available subject to conditions. Passengers participating in the Open Water Dive Course are able to complete their academic learning component prior to boarding at www.padi.com

DRESS CODE – During the day, sportswear and casual clothes are suggested. We kindly ask that you do not wear uncovered bathing suits or beach attire in public rooms and lounges, especially in the Dining Saloon. Footwear is requested in Lounges and is mandatory in the dining saloon due to Fiji Health regulations. During the evening smart casual wear is recommended – an open neck shirt and slacks for gentlemen and a dress, skirt and blouse or pants outfit for the ladies. The first night of each cruise is the Captain's Welcome Dinner which is an opportunity for you to dress up should you choose.

DRESS CODE cont – Be sure to bring a sun visor or hat, sunglasses (Polaroid) and good sun blocks on shore excursions. Sandals, low-heeled deck shoes and tennis shoes are most suitable on deck and for shore excursions. Please be aware there are some wet landings and most beaches are not groomed. Shoes that you can wear in the water are suggested. Fijians dress modestly and revealing clothing is not accepted in public places. Please cover your shoulders and knees (bula shirt & sulu are ideal) and remove headwear and sunglasses when visiting Fijian villages.

DRINKING WATER – The water from your cabin tap is suitable for drinking. There is also filtered water at the Coffee station in the lounge. The ship also supplies drinking water for passengers when visiting islands.

Yasawa Islands Cruise

Eticket Information and Itinerary

The beauty of Fiji lies in its diversity - over 330 islands waiting to be explored.

Captain Cook discovery cruises are designed to offer you an authentic and personal experience. The Yasawa Islands are situated off the north-west coast of the main island and being volcanic in origin, they offer some of the most dramatic scenery in the South Pacific. With a new island and coral reef to visit every morning and afternoon these cruises have a greater emphasis on beach and water activities. The 3-night cruise features the southern islands including the Waya and Sacred Islands. The 4-Night cruise explores the remote northern islands from Naviti to Yasawa including the famous Sawa-i-lau aquamarine limestone lagoon featured in the 1980 movie 'Blue Lagoon'. Combine both cruises for a total 7-Night Yasawa Islands cultural and island experience.

Inclusions • All meals (buffet & a la carte) • Daily island stopovers & water activities • Guided island, village & school tours • Snorkelling & glass bottom boat tours • Use of snorkelling equipment & mini gym • Tropical island lovo feast & kava ceremony • Entertainment • Child Minding (5-9yrs) and Nanny Services (under 5yrs) at selected times • 24 hour self-service tea & coffee bar • Transfers at the end of your cruise from the ship to Nadi & Denarau hotels. Fares exclude drinks, optional tours & services.

Bonus Features • Swimming pool, one top deck spa pools & sauna • Massage & beauty services (optional) • Scuba diving - certified & introductory (optional) • Mini-gym & meeting room • Easy access small boat launching platform • Choice of 3 accommodation levels • Friendly Fijian crew with a wealth of local knowledge • Mix of both male & female crew

Facilities: Swimming pool, one top deck spa pool, sauna and mini gym; glass-bottomed boat, snorkelling and dive vessels; two bars, two lounges and a single-sitting dining saloon; day spa, gift shop, chart house, library, guest laundry, 24 hour coffee and tea facilities and WIFI located in the Tabua Suites, Yasawa Lounge, Pool Deck and on the sundeck. MV Reef Endeavour also features a lift from D Deck to Sun Deck (limited access)

Dining: Dining is a vital ingredient in your Fijian cruise. Whether it is an alfresco luncheon, a casual barbecue or table d'hote dinner, our food is prepared on board from fresh local and imported produce and our on-board entertainment adds a special flavour to the mix.

Accommodation: The MV Reef Endeavour has approximately 63 suites, staterooms & cabins. Every cabin type features a private bathroom ensuite, internal telephone, on/off air-conditioning with temperature gauge, hair dryer, 240 volt power, international shaver point, soaps, shampoo & towels serviced daily. Each cabin is approximately 14 sqm. Tabua Suites are approximately 28 sqm. Staterooms and Suites open onto the outside deck and have two windows. Tabua Suites (4) feature a bedroom (twin/double) with ensuite bathroom, plus a separate day room with, chair, settee, desk, TV & DVD player, refrigerator, tea & coffee facilities and second bathroom. Connecting Family Staterooms (8) are located on the upper or main decks (twin/double). Staterooms (49) are located on the main decks (twin/double). Cabins (9) with portholes, open onto an inside passageway (twin/double/bunk triple/bunk quad).

Yasawa Islands Discovery Cruise – 3, 4 & 7-Nights – Denarau/Denarau (Tue & Sat) weekly

Tonight book your preferred time early for our a-la-carte Dinner.

Sunday – MONURIKI – MONU BAY

Reef Endeavour cruises to idyllic Monoriki where Tom Hanks' Castaway was filmed. Explore this natural film set on a guided kayak tour and explore idyllic Monu Island for snorkelling before a special village choral service. The beautiful harmonies of the village choir will simply delight you. This evening join the entertainment of our Sunday Show.

Monday – SACRED ISLANDS - WAYA ISLANDS

The Sacred Island is a place beautiful beyond belief. Legends tell of the great war canoe 'Rogoboka' which landed here with the first Fijians. On arrival the ship's crew pay tribute to the forefathers of Fijian culture and perform the Sevusevu (gift giving) ceremony. Spend a magical morning swimming in the aquamarine lagoons, snorkelling in spectacular coral gardens, beach combing or coral viewing from the glass bottom boat. Over lunch cruise to the Southern Yasawa islands. Enclosed by towering volcanic peaks and palm fringed beaches, Waya Island is a tropical paradise. Visit a local school this afternoon and a village and shell market. The fit will also have a chance to climb to the peak of Waya for amazing views. Don your favourite island attire for Pacific Island night tonight!
